still waver for the cause of right, come to our Lord and you will flourish in His Heart, think this over and learn that your refuge is in His Heart..." peace to you My flower; tell Me, is there on earth any greater joy or glory than understanding My Heart? what ability has man without Me shedding in his intellect My divine light of understanding? the Holy to this I reply: "do you not know that since time began and man was set on earth, the triumph of the wicked was always brief? the triumph of the wicked is almost over now because it will be swallowed up by My Triumph; just like the staff of Aaron that I turned into a snake and swallowed up Pharaoh's snakes, in this same manner My Triumph will strike and swallow up the wicked man's triumph ♡ so that in this Triumph you will all extol My Holy Name! then I will be among My people.... and you shall journey with Me, your God, you will walk with Me; you will walk with the One you once thought inaccessible... you will talk* with the One you had once put out of your mind, you will converse with My Divinity, for I, the Godhead will be present in your heart revealing, as a good counsellor, the path of Life to you; I will give your soul temperance, prudence and justice, let the meadows turn green and exult let all the woodland trees cry out for joy, for the Word of God is being addressed to us once more; He opens His Mouth like glitter; His Light is such that all His Holy Countenance is covered as though He had put a silver veil over Himself;

A word* then is uttered with imperial grace and majesty but at the same time with a melancholic sigh; every creature

I lift them to contemplate the Light; and all who trusted in their own power I reveal to them, through My Mercy, My Glory and My Majesty, so that their
